Message from the CEO

I hope this newsletter finds you and your families healthy and happy. I again thank everyone for their patience and understanding as we all continue to move through COVID-19. I realized the other day that we are now in our 70th year of business and we will shortly have assets of over $200,000,000. We all should be very proud of our credit union. Our annual meeting is tentatively scheduled for April 26th at 10:00 am. We are currently planning for a Zoom meeting, but hopefully we will be able to meet in person once again. Watch our Facebook page for changes and/or how to attend our virtual annual meeting.

Stay Safe!

Patty Preuss
