HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Message from the CEO

Happy New Year! With each new year, we always have change. Here at the credit union is no different. At the end of December, long time board member and President of the Board Gregg King stepped down from the Board of Directors. Gregg has contributed immensely to our credit union. From trimming tree branches to picking up motorcycles to letting us use his picture for a banner, he has volunteered countless hours to making our credit union great. On behalf of the employees and the Board, I wish Gregg all the best in the future. Thank you Gregg – we will miss you!
